FIRST CALL

Students of the Department of Croatian Language and Literature at the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences at Josip Juraj Strossmayer University in Osijek and Linguistics Student Association Lingvos are pleased to invite the students of Croatian language and other closely related sciences from Croatian and international universities to attend the International Student Conference Pontes poeticae. The conference will be held on 23-24 May 2014 at the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek. The purpose of the Conference is to enable the students of humanities to gain the experience necessary for their further advancement and to encourage the dialogue between the students in order to connect them. The Conference will enable the exchange of knowledge and attitudes among the participants, offer a wide variety of social activities and encourage the young researchers to develop professionally and scientifically. The Conference will be oriented towards the phenomena of the contemporary literature, but also towards the comparative approach to contemporary Croatian literature in South Slavic, Slavic and European context.

According to the program orientation, several different topic frameworks are offered:

- Models of reading the contemporary Croatian literature
- Regional approach to the contemporary Croatian literature
- Contemporary Croatian children's literature
- Language of contemporary Croatian authors
- Contemporary Croatian literature in the context of South Slavic and Slavic literature
- Contemporary Croatian literature in the context of the European literature
- Status of poetry in the contemporary Croatian literature

- Problem of the chronological determination and belonging of the contemporary (Croatian) literature
- Theoretical approaches to postmodernism and postpostmodernism
- Production of high and low literature
- Literature and other media

In order to participate at the Conference, it is necessary to apply for the topic framework which will be the basis for the research and consequent scientific paper. All papers and presentations are to be in one of the two official languages of the Conference – Croatian or English.

Topic frameworks should be conceived as main topics and guidelines according to which the participants can suggest their own topic. The topic is to be reported by sending the Application Form to the e-mail address pontes.poeticae@gmail.com along with a summary and other necessary data. Incomplete application forms will not be considered.

After the application, the organization committee will review the summaries and form the final program of the Conference according to the accepted topics.

Participation at the Conference is confirmed by sending a payment before the deadline and finally, by sending a written scientific paper. The participation fee is 100 HRK, which covers the expenses of publishing the book of summaries and the collection of papers, as well as the expenses for the holding of the Conference.

Deadlines:

- Topic submission before September 15, 2013
- Confirmation for the summary acceptance before November 1, 2013
- Fee payment before March 1, 2014
- Submitting the scientific paper before April 15, 2014

Instructions for the Application Form:

- In the application form you should state:
- Author's first and last name, e-mail address, author's faculty and university, program of study (course) and a current academic year
- Maximum 2 co-authors are allowed per topic
- The application form should contain:
 - A summary containing 150-300 words written in Times New Roman font, size 12, line spacing 1.5 in one of the official languages of the Conference – Croatian or English
