TAKING PART IN THE CONFERENCE

The intention of the organisers is to present the eponymous dialogue in the families, also those not Polish. Poland as a multicultural country (18th – mid-20th century) became a place of transgressions of values, customs and traditions. The organisers wish to make this rich and colourful cultural heterogeneity a background of consideration of family.

We kindly invite all academics and teachers of Universities and Colleges as well as everyone interested in family to take part in the conference. The participants will be able to voice their studies and opinions in family discourse by publishing papers in the following issues of the journal “Family Upbringing” – the electronic version is available on the website: www.wwr.uni.wroc.pl. The organisers plan also to publish Book of abstracts of conference papers.

To take part of the conference, one needs to send the application and transfer the conference fee to the account of the organiser. The conference fee is paid by all the participants. The organisers provide the conference materials, coffee breaks during proceedings, solemn dinner, accomodation for two nights

(after previous reservation by the participants), and most of all publishing in print the best papers in the following volumes of the journal "Family Upbringing".
