CALL FOR PAPERS

for the Conference

CULTURAL STUDIES: Voices from the margins

June 7th 2014, Faculty of Political Science, University of Belgrade.

I think a lot of people in cultural studies think we cannot just go on producing another analysis of "The Sopranos". Sorry, something more is happening in the world that requires our attention. I do not know if they know quite how to do it or where to go, but I do feel that shift of mood in cultural studies now.

Stuart Hall, August 2012.

Thanks to their transdisciplinary approach, Cultural Studies offer almost inexhaustible research possibilities. Due to their critical potential, they call for understanding of culture as a part of political, social, technological and economic aspects of the postmodern globalized world. The main aim of the conference is to show the ways in which "marginal" cultures and academic communities of "transitional" countries can enrich established approaches, critical stanzas and topics of Cultural Studies more generally.

We especially encourage young researchers and PhD students in Humanities, Social sciences and Art Theory to apply.

Suggest paper topics include:

- 1) Cultural Studies and related disciplines
- 2) Cultural Studies and political activism
- 3) Cultural Studies and ideology
- 4) Popular culture and media
- 5) Cultural Studies and art
- 6) Cultural Studies and cultural politics (institutional and non-institutional)
- 7) Cultural Studies and local context (voices from the margins)
